

I'm gonna tell you about Noah, my little buddy down in North Carolina
His pace is rather frenetic - some people say that he's a "no-goodnik!"
But he's good to me and he stands 4 foot 3 and I assure you that he's quite stable
Though he holds up his guitar with a USB cable

"Guitar is my life, Kluge!" - That's what he said
"Guitar is my life" - there's nothing else that he'd rather do instead
That's our Noah!

Now Noah is quite a Mensch, always on his best behavior
And he don't even buy his picks, no, he folds them out of paper, yes he does

"Guitar is my life, Kluge!" - That's what Noah said
"Guitar is my life" - there's nothing else he'd rather do instead

Noah's gonna be star as soon as learns to play the guitar
So can he borrow your Les Paul? He swears he won't leave a mark at all but I'm sure you'd agree that he'd learn faster if you threw in that Fender Stratocaster

Yeah! "Guitar is my life" - that's what Noah said
Ain't gonna play nothing else instead
One more time
"Guitar is my life!"

Yeah!
